Election Procedure

Upon registering to vote by December 31, either by filling out the Voter Registration Application form (attached) or by signing a valid candidate petition form, you will receive a ballot by mail by January 15 of that election year. You have until March 1 of that election year to submit your ballot to the Kansas Department of Agriculture. The candidate winner will take office April 1. Any challenge of voter eligibility, the petition process or any other election procedure must be submitted in writing to the Secretary of Agriculture between February 20 and one week after ballots are officially counted and winners announced. The Secretary of Agriculture, or his or her designee, shall serve as the final arbiter in any disputes that may arise out of the election procedure.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is eligible to vote?

Any grower who appropriately registers to vote may do so in an election for any commissioner representing that commodity and district where the grower maintains an official residence. Anyone who is a resident of the State of Kansas, has reached the age of eighteen (18) years before the next election and has been actively engaged in growing corn, grain sorghum, soybeans, sunflowers or wheat within the preceeding three (3) years will qualify as a grower.

How do I participate and vote?

1. Fill out a Voter Registration Application form (attached) or sign a valid candidate's petition.
2. An election ballot will be mailed to you by January 15 of that election year.
3. Return the completed election ballot by March 1 of that election year.

How can I become a commodities election candidate?

Contact the Kansas Department of Agriculture or any of the five grain commodity commission offices (corn, grain sorghum, soybeans, sunflowers or wheat) for an official candidate petition form.

Where can I get a registration form?

The Kansas Grain Commodities Voter Registration Application is included in this brochure. Brochures may be obtained from the Kansas Department of Agriculture or any of the five grain commodity commission offices (corn, grain sorghum, soybeans, sunflowers or wheat). You may also register by signing a valid candidate petition form.
